POSTSCRIPT.

COURIER OFFICE, 13TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The arrival of the H. C. Steam Vessel Victoria, Lieut. J. S. Grieve, Commanding from Suez 25th Sept. and Aden 3d instant.

The following is a list of her passengers:—

Mrs. Courtney, miss Dunsterville, Madam Mottet and 2 children, and a native servant, mrs. Davidson, mrs. colonel Melvill, and a native servant, miss Pogson, mrs. Huntley, mrs. Cox and child, with two European servants, mrs. Cowie, mr. B. K. Fennimore, cadet of artillery, mr. Cowie, assistant surgeon, Madras Army, mr. Fagan, Bengal civil service, mr. W. A. Lockhart, Madras civil service, major Huntley, Queen's Royal Lancers, lieut. Henry Ward, 33d Bengal N. I. captain Mottet, Nizam's service, captain Cox, 60th Bengal N. I. mr. Fraser, lieut. R. W. Horne, 8th regt. Bombay N. I. mr. H. M. Murray, mr. H. M. Douglas, cadet, mr. Gordon, mr. C. T. Aitchison, captain Hicks, 3d Bengal N. I. monsieur C. Ferriri, rev. mr. Tyrwhitt, mr. Warden, mr. F. Valient, mr. R. Dodd, mr. Sumarez, mr. De Havilland, mr. Charles Curling, mr. John Hall, engineer, mr. Lourenio Numles Cordoz and his servant, Antonio Maria Soores, and Marchund Banian.

Monsieur Altazar missed his passage at Aden. Lieutenant P. T. Fagan of the Bombay Cavalry, died on board, on his passage to Suez on the 22d Sept. at sea.

Printed at the Courier Press, by Sorabjee Dorabjee.